

Streetmosphere

Beet Street proudly presents Streetmosphere, a program that will transform downtown Fort Collins into an outdoor performing arts scene. Starting in summer 2010, you can experience our community's unique artists, performers and entertainers on the streets of downtown – musical acts, jugglers and magicians, acting troupes, comedians, dancers, storytellers, painters - downtown Fort Collins will come alive. This free program will showcase professional talent performing in multiple locations throughout downtown offering an inspired way to use arts, culture and creativity to provide a unique and memorable experience. Streetmosphere - expect surprise.
